The Daylight Store

To Make Your Purchases

Where you get the most for your money enlarges your number of gifts and extends your field of giving. Let's see how much we can help you out.

ON SALE TODAY

One lot of Ribbons in all colors and widths—Ribbons that have been selling for from 15c to 25c per yard. These are Ribbons at a sale price and will not last long—not more than three or four days. (See them in our window.)

A large lot of drummer's samples in Ladies' Neckwear, no two alike. Bought at half price. Will be sold accordingly, as follows: 10c, 19c, 25c, 50c and 75c. The 25c values are 50c goods. (Better get at these first.)

FOR FANCY WORK.

Embroidery Materials of all kinds, with Silks to match. Little, dainty Laces and Beadings for fancy work. Pin Cushions, Handkerchiefs and Sofa Pillows.

New designs in Handkerchiefs for Pillow Tops.

Initial Handkerchiefs for Ladies or Gents, in all pure linen, hemstitched. These we control for Barre. They cannot be substituted at the price, two for 25c.

SENSIBLE GIFTS.

Sensible gifts are nowhere better found than in Dry Goods stores, as about everything sold has an intrinsic value. The party to whom you make such a gift gets as much out of that article as you yourself put into it.

There are no better Dry Goods stores in the state to do business in today than in Barre. (Have you thought of it in that way?)

Handkerchiefs, Neckwear, Ribbons, Hand Bags, Linens, Waistings, Night Robes, Dress Goods, Furs and all kinds of warm garments make gifts that show the purchaser's good judgment.

WRITERS AND SCULPTORS.

Mrs. Craigie, better known as "John Oliver Hobbes," is said to be the best talker among women in London.

Longworth Powers, the sculptor, son of the late Hiram Powers, the famous American sculptor, has just died in Florence, Italy.

Henry Merwin Shady has been intrusted with the modeling of the Grant memorial to be erected in Washington at a cost of $250,000. Shady's father was the physician who attended General Grant in his last illness.

Gabriele d'Annunzio, the famous Italian poet and novelist, has a craze for dolls. In his villa at Settignano, near Florence, he has a large room full of these "divinities," mostly Indian, Chinese and Japanese. He pays any fair sum for a good specimen of his favorite gods.

ELUSIVE PEACE.

Universal peace is in sight. All the great nations have placed hurry up orders for additional war vessels.—Los Angeles Express.

It is mentioned that Andrew Carnegie intends to erect a magnificent palace of peace, doubtless out of the profits of the manufacture of armor plate for ships of war.—Philadelphia Record.

While the laird of Skibo is entreating the nations to disarm, why doesn't he shut down his old armor plate works at Pittsburgh? That would be a "fell swoop" worth talking about.—Los Angeles Times.

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

Crabs can see and smell, but cannot hear.

An average sheep weighing 152 pounds gives 91 pounds of mutton.

Parrots will not take a bath. At least it is said that not one in a hundred will of its own accord.

A flea is provided with a genuine lancet, the knife inclosed in a case in the head of the insect, the case opening sideways, like that of a razor.

Ptarmigans.

Ptarmigans change their brownish gray plumage to pure white in winter.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.

LOST—A black and gray colored spaniel dog, six months old. Finder will be rewarded by bringing to J. H. Magnaghi, corner North Main and Sixth streets. 2363
